

DRINKLESS

Meaning: Drinkless: adjective describing an event or occasion that occurs without alcoholic beverages.

1. After the big party, we found the drinkless evening surprisingly refreshing.
2. The drinkless celebration allowed everyone to enjoy each other's company without the usual pressures of alcohol.
3. She felt empowered during the drinkless retreat, discovering new ways to connect with herself and others.
4. The drinkless option on the menu featured a variety of creative mocktails that impressed the guests.
5. In a world often dominated by alcohol, the rise of drinkless events has become a welcome trend for many.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drinkless>