

DRIVELER

Meaning: Driveler: a person who engages in nonsensical or trivial talk.

1. The drivellers at the party spent hours discussing trivial matters instead of engaging in meaningful conversation.
2. She couldn't stand the constant chatter of the drivellers who surrounded her at the café.
3. His reputation as a drivellers made it hard for anyone to take his opinions seriously.
4. In a room full of intellectuals, the drivellers stood out for their lack of depth and insight.
5. Despite being a drivellers, he somehow managed to charm everyone with his infectious laughter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/driveler>