

DROIL

Meaning: Droil: a sudden or spontaneous burst of chaotic or uncontrolled expression, often in the form of laughter or artistic creation.

1. The artist's latest work was a droil that captured the essence of chaos.
2. As he listened to the discussion, a droil of laughter escaped the crowd.
3. Her droil of thoughts became clearer as she began to write them down.
4. In the bustling market, the vendor's droil of colors attracted many curious customers.
5. The film's plot was a droil of unexpected twists and emotional moments.
6. The artist's droil on the canvas captured the essence of chaos and beauty.
7. As the wind howled, the leaves began to droil around the yard in a wild dance.
8. His mind was a droil of thoughts, swirling and colliding with each other.
9. The chef added a droil of spice to the dish, enhancing its flavor significantly.
10. In the midst of the party, the conversation began to droil into laughter and stories.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/droil>