

DROOPER

Meaning: Drooper (noun): a person or thing that droops or hangs down, often indicating a lack of vitality or the need for care, such as a wilting plant or a fatigued individual.

1. The drooper of the plant seemed to signal that it needed more water.
2. After a long day at work, he felt like a drooper, exhausted and ready for rest.
3. The dog's drooper ears flopped as it excitedly chased the ball.
4. She noticed the drooper petals of the flower, indicating it was wilting from lack of sunlight.
5. In the cartoon, the drooper character always provided comic relief with its sad expressions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drooper>