

DROPWORM

Meaning: A dropworm is a type of earthworm that surfaces from its burrow, often indicating healthy soil conditions.

1. The gardener noticed a dropworm wriggling in the damp soil, a sign of healthy earth.
2. After the rain, the dropworm emerged from its burrow, searching for food on the surface.
3. Children were fascinated as they watched the dropworm glide through the grass, its body shimmering in the sunlight.
4. Farmers often rely on dropworms to aerate the soil and improve crop yields.
5. In her science project, she explained the life cycle of the dropworm and its role in the ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dropworm>