

DROVER

Meaning: A drover is a person who drives or herds livestock, particularly cattle, from one place to another.

1. The drover skillfully guided the herd across the dusty plains.
2. In the early morning light, the drover whistled gently to keep the cattle moving.
3. As a seasoned drover, he knew every shortcut to avoid the muddy trails.
4. The drover's hat fluttered in the wind as he surveyed the vast landscape.
5. At the end of a long day, the tired drover finally reached the market with his livestock.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drover>