

DRUB

Meaning: To drub means to defeat someone decisively or overwhelmingly in a competition or contest.

1. The underdog team managed to drub their rivals in a surprising turn of events.
2. During the match, the champion boxer drubbed his opponent in just three rounds.
3. The critics seemed determined to drub the new film, despite its strong box office performance.
4. In the final game of the season, the coach's strategy helped them drub their competitors decisively.
5. Many fans were thrilled to see their favorite band drub the previous record for ticket sales.
6. The team was determined to drub their rivals in the championship game.
7. After a tough training session, he felt ready to drub anyone who challenged him.
8. The critics expected the new film to drub all previous box office records.
9. In the final round, the boxer managed to drub his opponent with a powerful knockout punch.
10. Her relentless practice helped her drub the competition at the national level.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drub>