

DRUNK

Meaning: Drunk: having impaired physical and mental faculties due to the consumption of alcohol.

1. He stumbled out of the bar, clearly drunk and laughing at nothing.
2. After the party, she realized she had said some things she wouldn't have if she hadn't been so drunk.
3. The drunk man on the corner was trying to sing along to a song playing in a nearby café.
4. Even though he was drunk, he managed to navigate his way home without getting lost.
5. They had a great time at the concert, but by the end of the night, most of them were pretty drunk.
6. He stumbled out of the bar, clearly drunk and laughing loudly.
7. After a few drinks, she felt a bit drunk and decided it was time to call a cab.
8. The party was filled with drunk revelers dancing to the music late into the night.
9. He made a fool of himself at the wedding, getting drunk and spilling secrets.
10. Despite being drunk, she managed to find her way home without any issues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drunk>