

DRYNURSE

Meaning: A drynurse is a person, typically a woman, employed to care for and feed an infant, often by breastfeeding or providing nourishment.

1. The drynurse tended to the infant with great care and affection.
2. In the past, it was common for noble families to hire a drynurse to feed and care for their children.
3. She decided to become a drynurse after witnessing the bond that formed between caregivers and children.
4. The role of the drynurse has evolved significantly over the years, adapting to modern parenting needs.
5. Many cultures have traditions surrounding the hiring of a drynurse, reflecting their values on childcare.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drynurse>