

DUALIST

Meaning: A dualist is a person who believes in the distinction and separation between two fundamental entities, typically the mind and body or the physical and spiritual realms.

1. The philosopher was known as a dualist, believing in the separation of mind and body.
2. In their debate, the dualist perspective emphasized the importance of both physical and spiritual experiences.
3. Many people find the dualist approach appealing because it acknowledges the complexity of human existence.
4. The novel explored themes of good and evil through a dualist lens, illustrating the struggle within each character.
5. Her dualist beliefs often led her to question the motivations behind people's actions in a materialistic world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dualist>