

DUB

Meaning: To dub means to replace the original dialogue in a film or audio recording with a new version, often in a different language or by a different voice actor.

1. The director decided to dub the film in multiple languages to reach a wider audience.
 2. After the original actor's voice was deemed unsuitable, they hired a professional to dub the character's lines.
 3. The studio spent months perfecting the sound quality of the dub to ensure it matched the original performance.
 4. Fans were excited to see their favorite anime series finally receive an English dub.
 5. In the era of streaming, many viewers prefer to watch foreign films with dubbed audio rather than subtitles.
 6. The film was originally in French, but it was later dubbed in English for a wider audience.
 7. She decided to dub her favorite song in a different language for her music project.
 8. After watching the movie, he was impressed by how seamlessly the dialogue was dubbed.
 9. The actor was brought in to dub the character's voice for the international release.
 10. Many fans prefer the original version of the anime over the dubbed one.
 11. She decided to dub the foreign film into English for a wider audience.
 12. The artist was thrilled to see her song get a dub by a popular DJ.
 13. They planned to dub the documentary with insightful commentary from experts.
 14. He loves to watch the classic cartoons in their original language before they were dubbed.
 15. The studio spent months perfecting the dub to ensure it matched the original performance.
 16. The film was dubbed into multiple languages to reach a wider audience.
 17. He decided to dub his favorite anime series to share it with his friends.
 18. The actor's voice was dubbed over in the foreign version of the movie.
 19. She was impressed by how well the artists could dub the original songs.
 20. The documentary was quickly dubbed to make it accessible for international viewers.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dub>