

DUCKER

Meaning: Ducker: a person who skillfully avoids confrontation, responsibility, or difficult situations.

1. The athlete was known as a ducker, skillfully avoiding tackles during the game.
2. In the heated debate, he acted like a ducker, sidestepping the tough questions.
3. Her reputation as a ducker in negotiations made it hard for colleagues to trust her.
4. The clever ducker managed to escape the consequences of his actions without anyone noticing.
5. With a quick ducking motion, the boxer evaded his opponent's powerful punch, proving himself a master ducker.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ducker>