

DUCTIBLE

Meaning: Ductible: capable of being easily shaped or molded, especially under stress without breaking.

1. The engineer explained that the material was highly ductible, allowing for flexible designs.
2. In applications requiring moldability, choosing a ductible substance can greatly enhance performance.
3. The artist preferred using ductible materials to create intricate sculptures that could withstand tension.
4. Understanding the ductible nature of certain metals is crucial for effective manufacturing processes.
5. When heated, the alloy became incredibly ductible, enabling it to be shaped into complex forms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ductible>