

DUELIST

Meaning: DUELIST: A person skilled in the art of combat, particularly in formal, often one-on-one, fighting contests.

1. The skilled duelist gracefully parried his opponent's thrust with expert precision.
2. In the dimly lit tavern, tales of the legendary duelist captivated the attention of all who listened.
3. She trained rigorously every day, determined to become a master duelist in her own right.
4. The duel between the two renowned duelists drew a crowd eager to witness their fierce rivalry.
5. With a flourish of his sword, the duelist declared his challenge, igniting a spark of excitement among the spectators.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duelist>