

DULL-BRAINED

Meaning: DULL-BRAINED: lacking mental sharpness or creativity; slow to think or respond.

1. His dull-brained approach to problem-solving often frustrated his more creative colleagues.
2. Despite her intelligence, she sometimes seemed dull-brained when faced with complex emotional situations.
3. The dull-brained responses from the team indicated a lack of engagement with the project.
4. After hours of tedious lectures, many students felt dull-brained and struggled to focus.
5. He was often labeled dull-brained, but deep down, he just needed more time to process information.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dull-brained>