

DULL

Meaning: DULL: lacking interest or excitement; boring or uninteresting.

1. The lecture was so dull that several students fell asleep.
2. She tried to brighten up the dull room with colorful decorations.
3. His dull knife struggled to cut through the tough meat.
4. After a long week, he found the quiet evening refreshingly dull.
5. The movie's dull plot made it hard to stay engaged.
6. She regretted choosing the dull color for her bedroom walls.
7. His jokes were so dull that they failed to elicit even a chuckle.
8. The movie received poor reviews for its dull plot and predictable ending.
9. Even the most skilled chef can create a dull dish if the seasoning is lacking.
10. The lecture was so dull that several students struggled to stay awake.
11. His jokes fell flat, leaving the room in a dull silence.
12. The color of the walls was a dull gray that made the room feel gloomy.
13. After reading the dull novel, she decided to pick up something more engaging.
14. The knife had become dull over time and needed sharpening before it could be used again.