

DULLER

Meaning: DULLER (adjective): having lost brightness, intensity, or liveliness; less vivid or lively.

1. The paint on the walls became duller after years of exposure to sunlight.
2. As the day went on, the laughter of the children grew duller, replaced by silence.
3. His enthusiasm for the project was becoming duller with each passing meeting.
4. The once vibrant colors in the garden appeared duller as autumn approached.
5. After several rewrites, the story felt duller than it had in its original draft.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duller>