

DULLNESS

Meaning: DULLNESS: the quality of being uninteresting or lacking in excitement or stimulation.

1. The dullness of the lecture made it difficult for students to stay engaged.
2. She complained about the dullness of her daily routine, longing for some excitement.
3. The artist's use of vibrant colors contrasted sharply with the dullness of the gray cityscape.
4. His comments added a layer of dullness to the otherwise lively discussion.
5. They sought adventure to escape the dullness that had settled over their lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dullness>