

DUMB

Meaning: DUMB: lacking intelligence or good judgment; foolish or senseless.

1. The new policy was so dumb that even the employees couldn't understand its purpose.
2. She felt dumb for forgetting her best friend's birthday after all the reminders.
3. Despite his intelligence, he made a dumb mistake that cost him the game.
4. It was a dumb decision to invest in that failing company without doing proper research.
5. Calling her ideas dumb without offering constructive criticism was both rude and unhelpful.
6. His decision to invest in that failing business was incredibly dumb.
7. She felt dumb for forgetting her best friend's birthday after all those reminders.
8. The prank they pulled was not only immature but also downright dumb.
9. It's dumb to ignore the advice of those who have more experience in the field.
10. He realized it was a dumb mistake to trust someone he barely knew.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dumb>