

DUMPY

Meaning: DUMPY: having a short, thick, and unattractive appearance; often used to describe something that is squat or poorly maintained yet may possess hidden value or charm.

1. The old, dumpy house at the end of the street was filled with charm and memories.
2. Despite its dumpy appearance, the café served the best coffee in town.
3. She wore a dumpy sweater that made her look shorter than she actually was.
4. The dumpy little dog waddled happily through the park, oblivious to the world around it.
5. His dumpy car, though not glamorous, was reliable and got him where he needed to go.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dumpy>