

DUNCICAL

Meaning: Duncical: adjective describing something that is foolish, lacking in intelligence or substance.

1. The professor dismissed the student's argument as duncical, lacking any real substance.
2. Despite his duncical approach to the project, the team managed to achieve surprising results.
3. Her duncical remarks during the meeting left everyone questioning her expertise.
4. It was a duncical decision to ignore the data and proceed without further analysis.
5. The comedian's duncical humor resonated with the audience, making them laugh uncontrollably.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duncical>