

DUNCIFY

Meaning: DUNCIFY (verb): To make someone or something less intelligent or capable, often by causing confusion or distraction.

1. The teacher warned that constant distractions could duncify even the brightest students.
2. His attempt to simplify the problem only seemed to duncify the discussion further.
3. When faced with complex tasks, he often found ways to duncify his approach and miss crucial details.
4. The overly simplistic explanation served to duncify the project, leaving many questions unanswered.
5. It's frustrating when debates are duncified to the point where no real progress can be made.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duncify>