

DUNDER

Meaning: DUNDER: a foolish or clumsy person; someone lacking common sense or intelligence.

1. The old dunder kept talking about his glory days, much to the annoyance of the younger crowd.
2. With a dunder-headed move, he forgot to bring the important documents to the meeting.
3. Everyone in the office agreed that his dunder-like tendencies were becoming increasingly hard to ignore.
4. She rolled her eyes at his dunder speech, knowing it would lead to another pointless debate.
5. Despite being a dunder in social situations, he always managed to charm people with his genuine kindness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dunder>