

DUNGHILL

Meaning: DUNGHILL: a heap or mound of dung or manure, often mixed with refuse, typically found on farms.

1. The old farm was surrounded by a foul-smelling dunghill that attracted all sorts of pests.
2. He stumbled upon a hidden treasure while digging through the dunghill behind the barn.
3. Despite its unpleasant odor, the dunghill provided essential nutrients for the garden.
4. Children in the village often dared each other to touch the edge of the dunghill, claiming it was cursed.
5. The farmer decided to compost the waste instead of letting it pile up into a smelly dunghill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dunghill>