

DUNLIN

Meaning: Dunlin: a small wading bird of the sandpiper family, characterized by its slender body, long legs, and distinctive plumage, commonly found in coastal wetlands and shorelines during migration.

1. The dunlin is easily recognizable by its slender body and long legs.
2. During migration, the dunlin can be found along coastal wetlands and shorelines.
3. A flock of dunlins took flight, their silhouettes darting gracefully against the sunset.
4. Birdwatchers eagerly anticipated the arrival of the dunlin each spring as it returned to breed.
5. The dunlin's distinctive call often echoes in the quiet marshes where they gather.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dunlin>