

DUNT

Meaning: DUNT (noun): a dull, thudding sound made by a heavy object striking a surface.

1. The sound of the heavy door dunt echoed through the empty hallway.
2. As the ball hit the ground, it made a sharp dunt that startled everyone nearby.
3. She felt a sudden dunt of realization when she understood the gravity of the situation.
4. The old truck gave a loud dunt as it bounced over the pothole in the road.
5. During the storm, the rain created a rhythmic dunt against the metal roof.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dunt>