

DUNTED

Meaning: DUNTED (adjective): feeling defeated, discouraged, or demoralized, often due to external pressures or criticism.

1. He felt dunted after receiving the harsh criticism from his peers.
2. The relentless rain left the hikers feeling dunted and demoralized.
3. Despite her initial excitement, she soon became dunted by the overwhelming amount of work.
4. His spirit was dunted by the constant setbacks he faced in his project.
5. After the loss, the team's morale was noticeably dunted, affecting their performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dunted>