

DUNTER

Meaning: DUNTER (noun): A term used to describe a clumsy or ineffective person or thing, often implying a lack of capability or performance.

1. The old truck was a real dunter, barely making it up the hill without sputtering.
2. After a long day, he sank into his favorite chair, feeling like a complete dunter for forgetting the groceries.
3. She called him a dunter for leaving the door wide open in the chilly winter air.
4. Despite his reputation as a dunter, he managed to surprise everyone with his creative solutions.
5. The team's lack of coordination made them look like a bunch of dunter players on the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dunter>