

DUOTYPE

Meaning: Duotype refers to the existence of two distinct types of grammatical structures within a language.

1. The concept of duotype in linguistics refers to the presence of two distinct types of grammatical structures within a language.
2. In the study of duotypes, researchers often examine how these structures influence language acquisition in children.
3. The artist's work was characterized by a duotype of styles, blending traditional techniques with modern influences.
4. Understanding duotype interactions can greatly enhance our comprehension of social dynamics in bilingual communities.
5. The novel utilized a duotype of narrative perspectives, allowing readers to see the story from both the protagonist's and antagonist's viewpoints.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duotype>