DUP

Meaning: DUP refers to duplicate files or records that are redundant or unnecessary, often identified for removal or correction in data management.

1. The software update included a new feature to detect and eliminate any potential DUP files.
2. During the meeting, we discussed the implications of a DUP in the financial report.
3. The engineer explained how to resolve the issue caused by duplicate entries in the database, commonly referred to as DUP.
4. As we reviewed the project, we discovered a DUP that had been overlooked in the initial analysis.
5. Her research focused on the effects of a DUP on system performance and overall efficiency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dup