

DUPABLE

Meaning: DUPABLE: easily deceived or tricked.

1. The duplicity of his nature made him easily dupable by those with ill intentions.
2. In a world filled with deception, even the most cautious individuals can find themselves dupable.
3. She realized too late that her trust in him had rendered her dupable to his schemes.
4. The scam artist thrived on the fact that many people were simply too trusting and dupable.
5. His charm and persuasive words made him a master at targeting the dupable in every crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dupable>