

DUPE

Meaning: DUPE (noun): a person who is deceived or tricked, often due to gullibility or naivety.

1. She felt like a dupe after falling for the scammer's elaborate scheme.
2. The magician's tricks were so convincing that even the most skeptical audience members felt like dupes.
3. He realized too late that he had been a dupe in their clever plot to steal his ideas.
4. Don't be a dupe; always verify the information before sharing it online.
5. The film cleverly portrayed the protagonist as a dupe, manipulated by those he trusted the most.
6. She felt like a dupe after realizing she had been misled by the fake advertisement.
7. The con artist had a reputation for being able to dupe even the most skeptical individuals.
8. He was a dupe of his own trusting nature, believing that everyone had good intentions.
9. The software was designed to detect and prevent scams that aimed to dupe online users.
10. After being duped several times, she became more cautious about sharing her personal information.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dupe>