

DUPER

Meaning: DUPER (noun): A person who deceives or tricks others.

1. The magician's impressive tricks left the audience in awe, wondering if they were being duped.
2. She felt like a duper when she realized she had been tricked by her so-called friends.
3. The con artist was known as a master duper, deceiving victims with elaborate scams.
4. In the movie, the clever duper outsmarted everyone, leaving them puzzled by his clever schemes.
5. He played the role of a duper perfectly, making it hard for anyone to see through his facade.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duper>