

DUPERY

Meaning: Dupery: the act of deception or trickery, often involving the manipulation of perception or reality.

1. The artist's work was a clever dupery that blurred the lines between reality and illusion.
2. Despite his initial charm, his dupery eventually led to a loss of trust among his peers.
3. In a world filled with dupery, authenticity has become a rare and valued trait.
4. The magician's act relied heavily on dupery, leaving the audience both amazed and puzzled.
5. She quickly saw through his dupery, exposing the truth behind his extravagant claims.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dupery>