

DUPLEX

Meaning: Duplex: a building divided into two separate living units, typically sharing a common wall, designed for residential use.

1. The new housing development features modern duplexes designed for families.
2. After searching for weeks, they finally found a charming duplex in their desired neighborhood.
3. Investing in a duplex can be a smart way to generate rental income while living in one unit.
4. The architect proposed a duplex layout that maximizes both privacy and shared living space.
5. She loved the idea of having a duplex where her parents could live next door while still maintaining independence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duplex>