

DUPPLICITY

Meaning: Duplicity refers to deceitfulness in speech or conduct, often characterized by a deliberate concealment of the truth or a double standard.

1. Her duplicity became evident when she was caught lying about her whereabouts.
2. The politician's duplicity shocked his supporters, who believed he stood for integrity.
3. In a world filled with duplicity, it can be hard to trust anyone completely.
4. The detective was skilled at uncovering duplicity in the testimonies of witnesses.
5. Despite his charm, many suspected a duplicity in his intentions toward the company.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duplicity>