

DUPPER

Meaning: A dupper is a type of colorful flying object or kite often associated with festivals, known for its vibrant appearance and distinctive sound.

1. The children were excited to see the colorful dupper fly through the air during the festival.
2. On warm summer evenings, we would often sit on the porch and listen for the sound of the dupper in the distance.
3. Her vibrant painting of a dupper soaring above the mountains captured the essence of freedom.
4. As the sun set, a dupper swooped down to the lake, creating ripples in the water.
5. He described the dupper's unique call as a haunting melody that lingered in the twilight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dupper>