

DURELESS

Meaning: DURELESS: free from constraints or pressures, particularly those imposed by time or external circumstances.

1. The philosopher argued that true happiness lies in being dureless, free from the constraints of time.
2. In a dureless moment, we can find peace, untouched by the pressures of the world.
3. Her poetry captured the essence of dureless love, transcending the boundaries of time and space.
4. They sought a dureless existence, where memories would not fade and joys would never wane.
5. In his dreams, he wandered through a dureless landscape, where every moment felt eternally vibrant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dureless>