

DURESS

Meaning: Duress refers to the use of force, threats, or coercion to compel someone to act against their will or better judgment.

1. The confession was deemed unreliable because it was made under duress.
2. She felt immense pressure to sign the contract, fearing repercussions if she refused.
3. The defendant argued that his actions were coerced by threats and therefore should not be punishable.
4. In cases of duress, the law often provides protections for those who acted against their will.
5. Witnesses testified that the victim had been subjected to severe duress prior to the incident.
6. The confession was obtained under duress, casting doubt on its validity.
7. She felt that her signature on the contract was given under duress, influenced by threats.
8. The defendant claimed that he acted under duress when committing the crime.
9. In negotiations, they realized that their opponent was operating under duress, which changed their approach.
10. The emotional stress he experienced was a form of duress that affected his decision-making.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/duress>