

DUTIABLE

Meaning: Dutiable refers to goods or items that are subject to customs duties or taxes when imported or exported.

1. The dutiable items must be declared at customs to avoid penalties.
2. Importers need to be aware of which goods are dutiable under the current trade agreements.
3. She was surprised to learn that her luxury watch was dutiable upon entry into the country.
4. Understanding which products are dutiable can significantly affect the total cost of international shipping.
5. The government recently revised its list of dutiable products to include more electronic devices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dutiable>