

DYINGNESS

Meaning: Dyingness refers to the quality or state of being related to death or the process of dying, often highlighting the fragility and transient nature of life.

1. The artist's work often explores the theme of dyingness, reflecting on the fragility of life.
2. In her poetry, she delves into the concept of dyingness, capturing the bittersweet essence of mortality.
3. The film's portrayal of dyingness left a profound impact on the audience, prompting deep reflection on life and death.
4. He spoke eloquently about the dyingness of cultures, emphasizing the importance of preserving traditions.
5. In the novel, the characters grapple with the dyingness of their dreams, portraying a poignant struggle against time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dyingness>