

DYSURIC

Meaning: Dysuric refers to experiencing painful or uncomfortable symptoms related to urination, often characterized by pain and frequent urges to urinate.

1. The patient reported experiencing dysuric symptoms, including painful urination and frequent urges to go.
2. In cases of urinary tract infections, it is common for individuals to feel dysuric and uncomfortable.
3. The doctor explained that dysuric feelings could indicate underlying issues with the bladder or urinary tract.
4. After a thorough examination, the physician determined that the dysuric sensations were likely a result of inflammation.
5. To alleviate the dysuric pain, the specialist recommended a course of antibiotics and increased fluid intake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dysuric>