EBULLITION

Meaning: Ebullition refers to the act or process of bubbling or boiling, often accompanied by a vigorous or enthusiastic outburst.

1. The ebullition of the boiling water filled the kitchen with a comforting sound.
2. His excitement reached a point of ebullition when he received the good news.
3. During the lecture, the professor demonstrated the ebullition of liquids under varying pressures.
4. The ebullition of emotions at the concert was palpable, as fans cheered and sang along.
5. In literature, the ebullition of the protagonist's feelings often drives the story forward.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ebullition