

ECHOER

Meaning: ECHOER: a person or thing that produces echoes or repeats sounds, often amplifying or reflecting them.

1. The ancient cave was known for its eerie echoer, amplifying even the softest whispers.
2. As a skilled musician, she became an echoer of the classic melodies that inspired her.
3. The echoer of the forest seemed to respond to every sound, creating a symphony of nature.
4. During the performance, the echoer in the hall added a haunting depth to the singer's voice.
5. In the secluded valley, an echoer bounced the sounds of laughter back to the delighted campers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/echoer>