

ECLAIR

Meaning: Eclair: a long, cream-filled pastry made from choux dough, typically topped with icing or chocolate.

1. The pastry chef prepared a dozen eclairs filled with rich chocolate cream.
2. As a special treat for the party, she decided to make raspberry-flavored eclairs.
3. He couldn't resist ordering an éclair after seeing the dessert display at the café.
4. The éclair is a classic French pastry that pairs perfectly with a cup of coffee.
5. She carefully piped the custard into the delicate éclair shells just before serving.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eclair>