

ECSTATIC

Meaning: Ecstatic: experiencing or marked by overwhelming happiness or joyful excitement.

1. She was ecstatic when she found out she had won the scholarship.
2. The children were ecstatic as they unwrapped their gifts on Christmas morning.
3. After months of hard work, the team was ecstatic to finally see their project come to life.
4. He felt ecstatic at the news of his promotion, celebrating with friends that evening.
5. The crowd erupted in ecstatic cheers when their team scored the winning goal.
6. The children were ecstatic when they saw the surprise party that had been planned for them.
7. After months of hard work, she felt ecstatic to finally receive the job offer she'd been dreaming about.
8. His ecstatic laughter filled the room as they celebrated their victory together.
9. They were ecstatic to hear that their favorite band would be performing in their city.
10. Watching the sunrise over the mountains left her feeling utterly ecstatic and grateful for the moment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ecstatic>