

ECTROTIC

Meaning: Ectrotic refers to a landscape or environment that is desolate, devastated, or barren, often resulting from destruction or harsh conditions.

1. The ectrotic landscape was a haunting reminder of the devastation that had occurred.
2. In her research on ectrotic environments, she discovered how life can adapt even in the harshest conditions.
3. The artist's latest installation featured ectrotic themes, evoking feelings of loss and transformation.
4. Scientists are studying ectrotic regions to understand how ecosystems can recover from extreme events.
5. His poetry often delves into ectrotic imagery, capturing the fragility of existence in a changing world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ectrotic>