

EDUCATIONIST

Meaning: An educationist is a person who specializes in the theory and practice of education, often advocating for innovative teaching methods and curricula.

1. The educationist advocated for a more inclusive curriculum that catered to diverse learning styles.
2. Many educationists believe that experiential learning is vital for student engagement and retention.
3. An educationist's role often involves researching innovative teaching methods and implementing them in classrooms.
4. The conference featured several renowned educationists who shared their insights on the future of learning.
5. As an educationist, she dedicated her career to improving educational policies and practices in underserved communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/educationist>