EDULCORATING

Meaning: EDULCORATING: The act of making something less harsh or bitter, often by sweetening or softening its qualities.

1. The process of edulcorating the bitter medicine made it much more palatable for children.

2. In her research, she focused on edulcorating the harsh critiques of the novel to highlight its literary value.

3. The chef was known for edulcorating traditional recipes, adding unique ingredients to soften their flavors.

4. They spent the afternoon edulcorating their harsh opinions in an effort to maintain harmony among the group.

5. His attempt at edulcorating the truth only led to further confusion among the listeners.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/edulcorating