

EDULCORATION

Meaning: Edulcoration is the process of sweetening or making a substance more palatable, especially by adding sweeteners to improve taste.

1. The process of edulcoration in ancient cultures often involved adding honey to bitter medicines.
2. In modern pharmacology, edulcoration is used to enhance the palatability of certain drug formulations.
3. The chef's secret technique of edulcoration transformed the overly acidic dish into a delightful experience.
4. Edulcoration can be essential in the preparation of herbal teas, making them more enjoyable to drink.
5. The study examined how edulcoration influenced children's willingness to consume healthy foods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/edulcoration>